Contents

Empirical Manuscripts
The Self-Concept of Deaf/Hard-of-Hearing and Hearing Students
Mulat Mekonnen, Savolainen Hannu, Lehtomäki Elina, and Kuorelahti Matti ............................................. 345

Structured Instruction With Modified Storybooks to Teach Morphosyntax and Vocabulary to Preschoolers Who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing
Corrin G. Richels, Kathryn S. Schwartz, Jonna L. Bobzien, and Sharon A. Raver ............................................. 352

Articulatory Suppression Effects on Short-term Memory of Signed Digits and Lexical Items in Hearing Bimodal-Bilingual Adults
Hsiu Tan Liu, Bonita Squires, and Chun Jung Liu ................................................................. 362

Cued Speech Transliteration: Effects of Speaking Rate and Lag Time on Production Accuracy
Jean C. Krause and Morgan P. Tessier ................................................................. 373

Development of American Sign Language Guidelines for K-12 Academic Assessments
Jennifer A. Higgins, Lisa Famularo, Stephanie W. Cauthon, Christopher A. Kurz, Jeanne E. Reis, and Lori M. Moers ................................................................. 383

Level of Educational Attainment Among Deaf Adults Who Attended Bilingual–Bicultural Programs
Jesper Dammeyer and Marc Marschark ................................................................. 394

Adapting Experiential Learning to Develop Problem-Solving Skills in Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Engineering Students
Matthew M. Marshall, Andres L. Carrano, and Wendy A. Dannels ................................................................. 403

Effects on Deaf Patients of Medication Education by Pharmacists
Naomi Hyoguchi, Daisuke Kobayashi, Toshio Kubota, and Takao Shimazoe ................................................................. 416

Book Reviews
Rethinking Teaching and Learning Practices in a Visual and Bilingual Setting
Ronice Quadros ................................................................. 422

Sign Language in Action by Jemina Napier and Lorraine Leeson
Jon Henner ................................................................. 423

Deaf Friendly and Culturally Affirmative Treatment Approaches
Linda Risser Lytle ................................................................. 424

What Parents Need to Know
Jane Russell ................................................................. 425

Why Deaf Culture Matters in Deaf Education
Dan Hoffman and Jean F. Andrews ................................................................. 426

Bridging the Gap Between Theory and Practice for Promoting Social Competence in DHH Children: A Complete Package
Nina Wolters-Leermakers ................................................................. 428